WHO WE ARE

Don't let dictate your relationship to the supply chain!

More&More Unlimited is a Limited Liability Collective (LLC) that is here to help you navigate a world without bounds. We bring to the global supply chain. Our goal is to in the global distributed capitalist network.

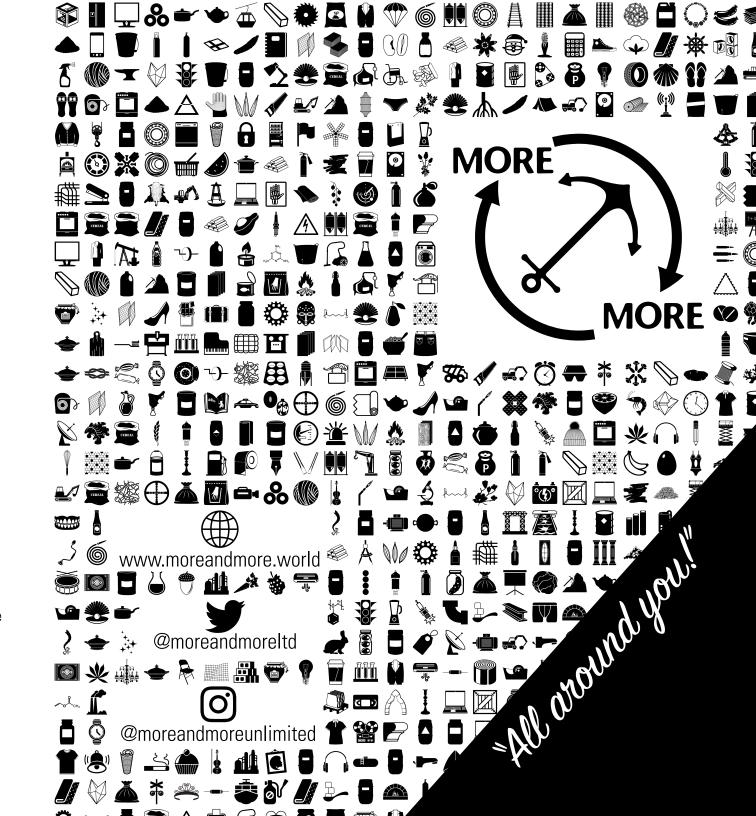

More&More has, through years of experience living in fictions about the world

For like it or not, you live inside a that prefers you to think of yourself as the consumer, the end of the line. The happy ending — when your and gets popped in the trunk of your , or the arrives at your door.

OUR CUSTOMERS

We are our customers! Are you tired of living in a world that's only optimized for ? In which time trumps space, and always wins? Have you ever yearned to make more of an effort to procure an avocado?

You might want to know what you've bought into...

You are value, productivity, and just-in-time.

INCOMPLETE PLANS FOR OUR 2017 FORECAST:

Platinum: Flowgistics™

Commodities are independent of you and do what they want are not human-dependent! We can help you think of yourself as a vector not a consumer by providing you with the logistics necessary to keep commodities flowing.

Copper: Illogistics™

We bring you to the stuff To get you stuff faster By bringing consumers to the factories to pick up components and putting them together themselves.

Aluminum: TinvFlow™

Your house as a supply chain. We can help you optimize you home to build efficient supply networks around centers of demand.

MORE&MORE UNLIN

internalizing and externalizing infrastructure

We specialize in post-last-mile logistics (i.e. consumption and post-consumption), such as cupboards, compost and coffins – in the home, at work, and in between! We optimize flow through our attention to TUBES- from distributed networks to digestive tracts.
